

Biodiversity & Agroecosystem Resilience - Workshop -

7th and 8th March 2013

Agropolis International, Montpellier France

A.Botta-F. De Clerck, Biodiversity &
Agroecosystem Resilience workshop,
7-8 March 2013

Welcome for the “small committee” part of the workshop!

Thursday March 7

- 14:00 General frame details
- 14:30 Review and discussion of our collective experiences
- 15:30 Identification of Key Questions to be addressed by interdisciplinary teams.
- 17:00 Synthesis of the Key Questions
- 19:30 Dinner

Friday March 8

- 9:00 Review of Key Questions
- 9:30 Breakout interdisciplinary groups charged with addressing a specific question.
- 13:00 Lunch
- 14:00 Plenary session to summarize group results and organize follow-up for 2nd 2013 workshop and the Resilience 2014 Conference

The context:
the Resilience 2014 conference
www.resilience2014.org

“Montpellier 2014” – sub-themes (cf. Call for paper)

- Development challenges through a resilience lens
- Analyzing and promoting change and transformation
- Knowledges
- Whose development, whose resilience?
- New methodology and tools
- Trade-offs and synergies

Schedule of the conference

Sunday	Registration / Welcome aperitif
Monday
– 8:00-9:00	Registration
– 9:00-10:30	Opening ceremony
– 11:00-17:00	On site sessions (Camargue, Etang de Thau, Montpellier, Causses, ...)
Tuesday & Wednesday
– 8:30-9:30	Plenary dialog
– 10:00-11:00	4 parallel panel sessions
– 11:15-12:15	~20 parallel speed-talk sessions
– 12:15-14:00	Poster session
– 14:00-15:00	4 parallel panel sessions
– 15:15-16:15	4 parallel talk sessions
– 16:30-18:00	self-organized session
Thursday
– 8:30-9:30	Plenary dialog
– 10:00-11:00	4 parallel panel sessions
– 11:15-12:15	~20 parallel speed-talk sessions
– 12:15-14:00	Poster session
– 14:00-15:00	4 parallel panel sessions
– 15:15-16:15	4 parallel talk sessions
– 16:30-18:00	Plenary synthesis
– 18:00-18:30	Closing ceremony

¾ of the conference dedicated to dialog

Milestones

03/2012	Call for papers
Trough out 2013	Warm-up event / workshop series Deliverables: concept note on each of the theme which identifies major controversies and prepares sessions at the conference
08/2013	Deadline for abstract & session Submission
11/2013	Registration opening
05/2014	The international conference (~800 participants) Training session for 40-50 Master and PhD students (25 from the South) articulating development and resilience issues

Our workshop – main objectives

- Objectives
 - To prepare an open dialog in 2014
 - To reinforce and generate collectives on Biodiversity & agroecosystems resilience
- Orientation
 - Trans-disciplinary (especially SHS and others)
 - Trans-scale
 - With a specific focus on Biodiversity as there are 2 other workshops close to ours
 - “Resilience of Social and Ecological Systems and Territorial Approaches”
 - “Agroecological transition and resilience”

Our workshop – main outputs

- Intermediate outputs for the website (position of the collective)
- Conference session propositions
- Potentially position papers or contribution to special edition